LATE NEWS ITEMS.

In the midst of the zero weather we have experienced recently California maliciously comes to the front with news that the weather there is delightful and everything growing finely.

Secretary Carlisle has purchased from a syndicate of American and European bankers $5,000,000 of gold coin at about $17.37 1/2 per ounce, payable in United States 30-year 4% coin bonds.

Snow fell at Tampa, Florida, on Friday for the first time on record. The fall continued for four hours. At Jacksonville the mercury fell to 14 degrees above zero. Great damage is believed to have been done to fruit trees.

Following close upon the loss of the Elbe in the North sea with some 300 passengers, comes the distressing news that La Gasogne, the great French liner, is several days over due and no tidings from her since she left Havre. She carries a cargo valued at $300,000.

The weather last week was the coldest experienced for years in many places, and great suffering is reported. The thermometer registered 22 degrees below zero at Little Rock, Ark., and at Fort Smith the Arkansas river was frozen solid for the first time in 20 years.

Henry Williams, a farmer living near Alden's ridge, East Tennessee, on Thursday last killed some hogs and hung the bodies in his smokehouse. At midnight he was awakened by unearthly howls and on looking out saw a pack of panthers surrounding the smokehouse accompanied by a big black bear, all drawn to the place by the smell of blood. When several of the animals were shot the others sulked away.

The Press-Transcript has inaugurated a pound party for the relief of the poor of Lexington, and from the report of the pounds now pouring in it is probable that the enterprise of that great central Kentucky daily will result in much good. The P.-T. deserves the praise of all good people for its noble efforts. The Kentucky Leader seconds its plan with hearty approval, and hand in hand they are doing much towards relieving the suffering poor.

Shepherd, the husband of the woman found on the C. & O. track near Lexington, has been held for murder. His story before the coroner's jury, and the subsequent recital of his whereabouts on the night she was killed, were so conflicting as to cause suspicion. Old Clemmens never relented in his hate of the daughter who married against his will, but her brother, Bob Clemmens, saw that she had decent burial in Lexington's city of the dead and paid the expense of the funeral.

The Suit of Mrs. Alexander.

A great many people are under the impression that because English Anderson has been acquitted of the murder of George Alexander, that this also settles the damage suit for $25,000 brought by the widow of Alexander against Anderson. We are informed by attorneys that this does not necessarily follow, and that the suit for damages will be prosecuted notwithstanding the verdict of acquittal for killing.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

These indefatigable men of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county who seem determined to locate the lynchings of Tom Blair are examples worthy of imitation. It is consoling to see a few men in this section who manifest a willingness to bring to justice our outlaws at any cost. Kentucky has long needed such men to look after the dark side of our state's history.—Richmond Pantagraph.

KILLED BY THE TRAIN.

The Disinherited Daughter of a Blue Grass Baron.

The girl who was found horribly mangled on the Chesapeake & Ohio road, was identified today as Mrs. J. A. Shepherd, the young wife of a itinerant photographer. The identification of the body developed an ideal romance of the blue grass, the features of which are based on real facts. Not alone was the affair tinged in romance, for the scene enacted when the husband discovered that the mangled and disfigured woman was his wife, was dramatic in the extreme. Just before Coroner Malloy began the inquest over the body of the girl, James A. Shepherd appeared at the morgue and requested that he be allowed the privilege of inspecting the remains. When the sheet covering the girl was lifted, Shepherd uttered a heartrending cry, and said in a broken voice that it was his wife. When Shepherd recovered his composure he was placed on the witness stand.

He stated that on Sunday his wife left home to call on a neighbor. She did not return, and he retired without her, supposing that she had remained over night with friends. On Monday she did not return, and he was still not alarmed, as he thought probably that she was at her brother's.

He learned of the finding of the body of the girl today, and went to the morgue to find that it was his wife. His relations with Mrs. Shepherd, he said, were pleasant, and there could have been no cause for suicide.

Mrs. Shepherd is the daughter of Rankin Clemmons, one of the wealthiest men in the blue grass, possessing 250 acres of blue grass land and nearly $100,000 in interest. When Mrs. Shepherd was very young she became infatuated with Shepherd, who was in her father's employ. Contrary to his wishes she married her lover in this city two years ago. When Clemmons heard of the marriage he disinherited the girl, and swore he would never speak to her again. Shepherd became a traveling photographer, and after doing business in Indiana and Illinois he located in Cincinnati for a time. He then came home, and his life almost as a pauper. Word was sent to her father this evening of the death of his daughter. The rich farmer's heart did not soften toward his disinherited daughter even after her death. He early informed the messenger that he would have nothing to do with the body, and refused to give a dollar towards burying it.

He stated that his son Robert might do as he pleased, but he would not bother himself. Shepherd is thus a pauper, and unless Robert Clemmons opens his purse it is probable that the girl of the rich baron of the soil will be interred through charity.

The jury, after hearing all the evidence in the case, brought in the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that the body before us is that of Mrs. J. A. Shepherd, who came to her death by being foully dealt with, and then placed on the C. & O. tracks to obliterate the deed."

Shepherd is almost insane with grief. He states that his wife was in poor health, and it was probable that while in a demented state she wandered upon the C. & O. track, and was murdered by railroads. After the inquest it was found that one of the jury was a conductor on the C. & O. railroad. Coroner Malloy was very wrathful when he heard of this—Lexington, Ky. Louisville Commercial, 6th inst.

Now Is the Time.

The benefit to be derived from a good medicine in early spring is undoubted, but many people neglect taking any until the approach of warmer weather, when they will like a tender flower in the hot sun. Something must be done to purify the blood, overcome that tired feeling and give necessary strength. Vacation is earnestly longed for, but many weeks, perhaps months, must elapse before rest can be indulged in. To impart strength, and to give a feeling of health and vigor through out the system, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems perfectly adapted to overcome that prostration incident upon change of season, eliminate or life, and while it tones and renovates the system it purifies and sustains the blood.

The Mt. Sterling Lynching.

If the recent earnest attempt in Memphis to convict the cowardly lynchers of the six negroes who were brutally murdered while in charge of the officers of the law proved a failure, what can the people of Kentucky hope any upon for the conviction and punishment of the lynchers of Thomas Blair at Mt. Sterling?

In the prosecution at Memphis the officers of the law had aroused and united public sentiment to aid them in bringing the murderers to justice, and this feeling was so strong that a handsome fund was raised by public meetings to aid the attorney-general in the prosecution, and still it failed. What can poor Mt. Sterling hope to do with her own people divided and but half-hearted encouragement given to the officers of the law, to whom is intrusted the duty of bringing the culprits to justice? We speak of our progress as a part of the new south, but, until public sentiment, and even a radical change, we will continue to furnish pretext for partisan organs of the north to bring charges of lawlessness against us which will hurt none the less when we feel in our own consciousness that they are not so badly true.

If the good citizens of Mt. Sterling will awake to the real seriousness of the situation, and will lend their warm support to the officers of the law, whether they are radical or not, they will deserve the cordial thanks of the entire state, and whether the effort to convict the lynchers is successful or not, the earnest effort to bring them to justice will have a most salutary effect, which will be felt for years to come in its restraining influence over those who might be tempted to take part in lynching in the future. Every patriotic citizen of Mt. Sterling should support Judge Cooper in his fearless attempt to bring the lynchers of Thomas Blair to punishment.—Press-Transcript.

Don't Stop Tobacco.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing comfort, health and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, so, tobacco, to an over-ripe man, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872 without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking Baco-Curo—it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day when you took your first chew of smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our iron-clad guarantee, at $1.00 per box, three boxes (30-day's treatment) $2.50, or sent direct upon receipt of price. Send six 2-cent stamps for sample box, booklet and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company, manufacturing chemists, La-Crosse, Wisconsin.

A Big Suit.

One Sunday afternoon in the latter part of August, 1891, while a K. C. train was being made up in the yards of this city, C. H. Jones, a young brakeman, was caught between the humpers of two cars, and the car was crushed out of him. The car's spring found out but little, and the accident passed from the minds of most people. It is brought to mind again by a suit filed in the circuit court recently by Mrs. Sallie McGreggor, of Kansas City, Mo., for $20,000 damages for death of the brakeman. It seems that the real name of the man was McGreggor, and that he was her son. He had become involved in some way with a woman, and had assumed the name of Jones, which he bore at the time of his death. The case will not be tried at this term of the court, as the papers were not served on the railroad officials in time.—Winchester Democrat.

FREE COINAGE OF SILVER.

The free and unlimited coinage of silver, the product of American mines, at the old ratio of 16 of silver to 1 of gold, is the only solution of and remedy for the disturbed and unsatisfactory condition of trade, manufacture and general business of the country. The surreptitious act of 1873, divorcing silver and gold in our monetary system, was a crime of untold magnitude. It was the rankest kind of class legislation in favor of the wealthy against the producers of wealth, and hostile to the prosperity of the United States. It was an act of treason because done at the instance of a European syndicate and for bribe money, "giving aid and comfort to our country's enemies." To shield the guilty parties, the well authenticated facts, often published, have been vigorously denied.

The Enquirer will continue to expose this unpardonable crime until right and justice are done the people by the full restoration of silver to its old companionship with gold. We need the assistance of the people in disseminating the truth, to which end we invite all in your selection of papers for the coming season to include the Enquirer, that costs only $1.00 a year. THE HERALD.
 SPEAKER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
 THURSDAY...February 14, 1895.

By reference to our Campton correspondence it will be seen that a railroad meeting has been called at Campton for next county court day, Monday, March 4. Every man who is truly interested in the welfare and upbuilding of Wolfe county's material interests should be on hand on that occasion and be prepared to offer substantial aid to the enterprise. Let every man feel that it is important for him to do what he can, and give as liberally as his circumstances will allow. Donations can be made in sums of $35 and upwards, and by this means we can show to the company that we are interested in the enterprise, and will welcome the construction of a railroad connection with the Lexington and Eastern with a whole-heartedness. Unless we do this we cannot hope to secure the railroad, and if we fail now we are forever lost to quick transportation for our products. The writer can see no possible hope for a railroad through Wolfe county if we fail to secure this one, and we beg that every man will be prepared on that occasion to do all he can. In this connection it has been suggested that a meeting of those friendly to the enterprise be called for Campton and Hazel Green, respectively, on Saturday, the 24th inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., and at each of these meetings a committee be appointed to secure right of way, so that at the meeting on our county court day we may show the faith that is in us by our efforts. A committee from the Hazel Green meeting will undertake the securing of the right of way and all possible aid between Stillwater and the Caney coal fields, and the Campton committee can likewise secure right of way, aid, etc., between Stillwater and the mouth of Mill creek, over the old Kentucky Union survey from Mill creek to Campton, and thence to Stillwater by the most probable route. These papers should be signed up by the individuals owning the land, and each include any additional aid in the way of donations of money, ties, timber, stone, etc. By taking this course we can at the Campton meeting, on court day, discuss our prospects for a railroad in an intelligent manner, and thus save all guess-work and much unnecessary delay. Now is the time to work if we hope to win, and every citizen should be interested sufficiently to feel that he is the man upon whom the whole thing devolves, and then do his utmost to bring success. Every man will alike share the honor of the work, and surely none could have a prouder record than that he helped secure this railroad.

Let every man in the county talk up the railroad, as it would be the grandest thing for our county imaginable. The fact that your paper made a good living and accumulated a large boundary of land is no argument against it. By reason of his accumulated acres you are land-poor today because this same land does not bring you a return sufficient to justify you in the outlay of taxes you have to pay. But with a railroad every acre of your estate could be turned to advantage, and when the honored sire was wont to slowly gather dimes the hustling son could get collars.

The editor of this paper was in Winchester recently and saw turkeys selling there for $1.50 and $2 that could be bought here for 50 to 75¢. With a railroad through our county to the Lexington and Eastern these better prices would obtain here. We verily believe that the increased price of poultry and eggs alone would more than compensate the people of Wolfe county for all they are asked to contribute to the construction of the proposed road.

The people of Winchester are very much enthused over the prospect of a railroad opening up this section, and we believe we can rely upon that city for substantial aid in securing the road if we will do our part. But unless we do what we can we do not deserve the assistance of any one, and every man in the county should bear this fact in mind.

Republican Inconsistency.
 Spencer Cooper has a hard new head—on his paper—The HAZEL GREEN HERALD. It adds much to the appearance of this always well-printed journal. The old head Spencer wears himself cannot be improved upon.—Mt. Sterling Gazette, Rep.

The HAZEL GREEN HERALD has a new head. (A great improvement on the old one.) The editor, Spencer Cooper, wears a new head. It should be a very great improvement on the old one.—Winchester Sun, Rep.

"Blurt" Talks Railroad, Etc.
 EZRA, KY., Feb. 12, 1895.
 I hope that the people of Wolfe county will not neglect the present opportunity of getting a railroad. Don't do like the intelligent (?) people of Morgan county have done, who mistook their ignorance for wisdom. Last fall when the railroad question was before us, a large number of our people acted as though Solomon had risen from the dead, and had been blowing his breath in their faces. But now they realize that they have been blowing the gas of ignorance into the face of prosperity. If any of you people think that "the road will be built just as quick without help as with it," you just step over into Morgan and ask our people what they think about it. If Morgan cannot get the line of road, we want you to get it. Every citizen in the country will admit that Eastern Kentucky cannot be developed without railroads, and if the present generation expect to enjoy those blessings the time to act is when we have a proposition submitted to us by a company that is ready to construct the road.

All the warmth of clothes and fire was not sufficient for Boon McGuire. And as the winter colder grew. His bed was found containing two.

J. B. Cecil came near losing his house by fire last week. The family were attending meeting at this place, and when they returned home they found the house full of smoke and a large portion of the floor burned away. Their timely return saved their beautiful residence. BLURT.

In a recent editorial, the Salem Oregon, Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by John M. Rose.

THE HERALD.

FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.
We are authorized to announce JOHN C. WOOD, of Montgomery county, as a candidate for the office of Railroad Commissioner in this, the Third district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church to-night at 6 o'clock.

Harve Nickell, who has been quite sick for several days, is out again.

Tom Lee and Jimmie Day will leave for the wild and woolly west on the 22d.

J. Taylor Day left Monday for Winchester and other points on a business trip.

There was no mail to this place from either Rothwell or West Liberty on Friday last.

John Robinson has moved into the parsonage property recently vacated by Dave James.

Elder Howard writes that he has had 35 additions since his meeting commenced at Soldier, in Carter county.

The infant child of T. J. Swinn and wife, and an infant of Elijah Polfry and wife, of Campton, died last Monday.

Thomas Polfry will please accept one thanks for a "poem," which was sent us in good shape a few days since.

Mike O'Hair, who lives on Laurel, and on the prospective route of the railroad, gave us his will give right of way over his lands.

Keep your blood pure and healthy and you will not have rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the blood vitality and richness.

We understand that Next Sabbath, of Charleston, H., offers $20 a month for farm lands. Charleston enjoys railroads and hence the farmers are able to pay good prices for help.

George R. Snyder, with J. S. Phelps & Co., of the Planter's Tobacco Company, Louisville, will please accept our thanks for a very handsome memorandum and bill-book combined.

J. M. Havens, our popular young jeweler, will attend court at Owensboro Monday to give a three-day trial to his fish case. He will have Moore to say about it on his return.

Abner Moore, of Stillwater, who bought the Lee Patrick property, near Hazel Green, on Tuesday moved from Stillwater to the property of Mrs. Nannie Kash, just below Hazel Green.

R. W. Smith, representing the Carter Dry Goods Co., of Louisville, was a guest of the Day house over Sunday. See his card in this paper, and when in need of anything in his line write him.

Sheriff Wilson tells us that he was at Walnut Grove a few days since, and the people there are very much pleased with the prospect of a railroad through our county to the Lexington and Eastern.

Henry Pieratt has our thanks for some brains, but any one who knows Henry will agree with us that he could himself have utilized them to advantage. They were from a fine beef he killed on Wednesday—indeed the finest beef that has been slaughtered here for many months.

During this snow nearly everybody goes on runners, when they ride. The hauling is done on sleds, and some are converted into pleasure vehicles. David James and his family were moved to the station on a large sled, and Mr. Bartley, of Morgan county, loaded five barrels of coal oil from the station here on a sled.

Logan Hammond, who has just returned from Meigs county, tells us that Guy Bandy, of Hager, complains of not getting THE HERALD. As the paper is mailed regularly every Thursday at this office, the fault is with the postmasters along the route, and we hope they will be more careful. Mr. Hammond also informs us that the trial of Fletcher, charged with murder, was continued till next term.

What Can Be Done.

As an instance of what a man can do with railroad facilities, we mention the case of Fayette James. A few years since he put everything he had into money and moved into a part of T-xas remote from railroads, where he spent every cent and did not earn anything. Two years ago he borrowed $100 and moved to Illinois, renting a farm right at the railroad. Now he has six head of good horses, two cows, 20 head of hogs, enough corn and provision for a year, has paid the $100 and has money in his pocket. A railroad would make Wolfe county superior to any county in Illinois, because we have more to bring money, and now we have a chance to get the road. Will you help?

The Sick List.

Dr. John A. Taulbee reports the following patients under his treatment: Two children of John Davis, Frank Clodion, improving; Mrs. Jas. Elkins and babe, Mrs. Jellie Rose, fever; Squire Fallon, (son of Logan's), very low; Mrs. Lowe, pleurodynia; Mrs. Polfry, fever; Miss Belle Taylor, Ed Napier, James Gilly, influenza; Mrs. Ed Cecil, improving; Miss Fellen's boy; Hazel Sally, hemorrhoids; improving; Mrs. James Sebastian, convalescent; Nannie Sample, neuralgia; also a dozen or more afflicted with chronic troubles.

A Paedagogue, after from Los Angeles, 432 Castelar St., Los Angeles, Cal.—After having suffered for a long time from neuralgia, pleurodynia without obtaining relief, I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was almost immediately relieved. I highly recommend it to all who have medicine known.

D. M. HAMILTON, For sale by John M. Root.

Union Sunday School.

The Sabbath school organized at the Methodist church on Sunday last under very promising auspices with an enrollment of 11 members. The officers and teachers chosen were: N. C. Waddell, superintendent; Miss Laura Rawlings, assistant; Mrs. L. C. Thompson, secretary and treasurer; Miss Florence Quicksall, assistant. Teachers: Class No. 1, Miss Mattie Quicksall; No. 2, Dr. John A. Taulbee; No. 3, Miss Florence Quicksall; No. 4, Miss Laura Rawlings.

Common Sense.

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's PILLS cures constipation by restoring peristaltic action to the alimentary canal.

More Enterprise.

John H. Pieratt, the affable landlord of days ago, showed us the plans for a new hotel a few days since, and should the railroad prove a reality he will erect a handsome hotel edifice on his corner lot where the old Pieratt hotel stood. John understands the hotel business from a to z, and should he go into it again, the commercial tourists all over the country will flock to his hostelry to enjoy his rich fund of anecdotes.

Go to Illinois.

David B. James and family left here Monday morning for Fair Grange, Ill., where they will make their future home. Dave drilled his children and called the roll every day for several days prior to his departure, to make sure that none got away, and with so large a family to till the soil, he ought soon to make a fortune in that state, where no railroad abound.

On a Catler.

The editor and his letter I enjoyed a sleigh ride Monday evening. John H. Pieratt, the fiery man, kindly loaned us his cutter, a home-made one, and we hatched our own proud pegasses, "Bully," into the sleighs, and for an hour sped through the snow along the Broadway boulevard.

Elder J. T. Pieratt left Tuesday morning for Zachariah, on the border of Lee and Wolfe counties, where he began a series of meetings on Tuesday evening.

Killing of Dr. John E. Rader.

Dr. John E. Rader was shot and killed last Tuesday night at the residence of Catherine McQuinn, on the south fork of Quickwand, four miles from this place. Catherine McQuinn says that she killed him. He was shot in the fifth rib on the left side, the ball passing out at the sixth rib on the right side. The body was brought home and lay in state for a few hours for burial. Mrs. McQuinn sent for Sheriff Cembis early Wednesday morning and gave herself up. Tom Smith and Robert Fields were the only persons at the house at the time of the killing, which occurred about 11 o'clock. The parties will be before Judge Day today. There are a variety of opinions as to the murder, and many think that all the parties should be hanged. The law should have been a coroner's inquest, but that is something that is rarely done in this part of the world. Facts should always be ascertained in every violation of the law, and no pains should be spared by the civil authorities to get possession of them. The body of the deceased will be buried here today (Friday). Dr. Rader leaves a wife and three and three very interesting children. We can assure them of the sympathy of the entire community in their deep sorrow.—Jackson Inquirer, 8th.

ACADEMY NOTES.

B. M. Nickell was in West Liberty on Wednesday.

W. L. Hammond spent two days at his home in Magoffin county this week.

N. C. Congleton was called home on Monday to see his mother, who is again very sick.

Miles Nickell, of Daysboro, came down with and enrolled his son, Benford, last Monday.

Mrs. Amyx, of Daysboro, came down Tuesday and arranged to enroll her daughter next Monday.

J. W. Taubee, who is teaching in Frenchburg, writes under date of the 11th inst., that his daughter Lula will enroll in a few days.

W. A. Jones, of Clarke county, and Miss Bonnie Kash, of Hazel Green, both former pupils of the academy, were married at Frenchburg on Tuesday.

New matriculates this week are: Benford Nickell, Daysboro; Woodson Little and C. Linden, Gilmore; Anna E. Pieratt, Ezell; Curtis Pieratt, town, Mrs. N. Kash, county.

The junior division of the Hunt of Bon society gave a well prepared program on Tuesday morning. The societies now vie with each other, and thus quite an interest has been awakened.

Services at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject: "Is the Christian Church Prejudiced?" Sunday-school at the same place at 9:30 a. m. The attendance at Sunday-school last Sunday morning was nearly 80.

It has been reported that there has been a great deal of fever among the pupils of the academy. There has not been one case of fever this winter, and only one pupil has been sick, viz. Lee McCann, who had an attack of pneumonia, brought on by exposure. The friends of the school will please correct this false impression that has been circulated, as it might keep pupils from entering the academy this session. Neighborhood papers might also mention this.

ACADEMITE.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none can out of ton are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Dream City.

We desire to again call attention to our very liberal subscription offer for our outlined last week. That it is most acceptable is proved by the fact that we have already received numerous responses, and those who have in possession the handsome volume of sixty-four World's Fair views are most enthusiastic in its praise. The work is issued in the highest style of art, with an elaborate stiff cover in gold and colors, and the engravings are printed on highly enameled paper. The pictures are 8x10 inches, and the volume is an ornament to any home. We send it free, postage paid, to every new subscriber; to any old subscriber who renews for one year and to any person, subscriber or non-subscriber, who sends us one new subscriber, the remittance for one year's subscription to be forwarded in each case.

Col. John P. Salzer.

John L. Phillips, writing from London, Ky., to the Louisville Times, suggests the name of Col. John P. Salzer, of West Liberty, as suitable gubernatorial timber, and says the mountains are full of good and true Democrats who are clamoring for Col. Salzer for governor. If the gallant colonel should decide to cast his fortunes in a fight for the Democratic nomination for governor, he would receive the support of thousands of blue grass as well as mountain Democrats, and should he be nominated and elected, he would make the state a faithful, conscientious and able chief executive.

Little May Bentley is an accomplished educational and natural born speaker of only 12 years of age. She is the only child temperance lecturer before the public. Her genius, however, did not exempt her from an attack of a disease of the blood. Her own words best tell the story: "O. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. I heartily join with the many thousands that are recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had been troubled from infancy with gatherings in my head. I was compelled to leave school upon the doctor's advice. He thought it was the only thing to save my life, but I was persuaded finally by a friend to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The use of one bottle acted like effectively upon the blood and I began to improve. After the use of three bottles the gathering ceased and I am cured of my former trouble. I owe my life and will always remain a true friend to Hood's Sarsaparilla." LILLIE MAY BENTLEY, Shelby, Ind. Get HOOD'S
